PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

Ironshore wants you to know how we protect the confidentiality of your non-public personal information. We want you to know how and why we use and disclose the information that we have about you. The following describes our policies and practices for securing the privacy of our current and former customers.

What information does Ironshore collect?

The non-public personal information that we collect about you includes, but is not limited to:

- Information contained in applications or other forms that you submit to us, such as name, address, and social security number;
- Information about your transactions with our affiliates or other third-parties, such as balances and payment history;
- Information we receive from a consumer-reporting agency, such as credit-worthiness or credit history.

What information does Ironshore disclose?

We disclose the information that we have when it is necessary to provide our products and services. We may also disclose information when the law requires or permits us to do so.

How does Ironshore protect confidentiality and security?

Only our employees and others who need the information to service your account have access to your personal information. We have measures in place to secure our paper files and computer systems.

Does Ironshore grant the right to access or correct personal information?

Yes - you have a right to request access to or correction of your personal information that is in our possession.

How do insureds contact Ironshore?

If you have any questions about this privacy notice or would like to learn more about how we protect your privacy, please contact the agent or broker who handled this insurance. We can provide a more detailed statement of our privacy practices upon request.
