

Soccer Adventures

CS&R participated in an indoor 6-a-side soccer league over the winter. As games were held on Monday evenings, all soccer loving CS&R members had something to look forward to at the start of the week. Turnouts were huge for each game and a very coordinated rolling substitution policy was adopted to tire out our opponents. The team made it to the semi-finals and went down fighting. There were some memorable goals, saves, and a yellow card too - we do take our soccer seriously.

Spring is here, and we are back on the soccer field. We are participating in an outdoor 7-a-side league in Fenway, with games every Tuesday evening between 7 to 10 pm. We would love to have you come play with us. If you are interested, please feel free to reach out to the CS&R Alumni team

March Madness Belt Challenge

The Culture & Engagement (C&E) pillar hosted another belt challenge for this year's Division I Men's NCAA basketball tournament. Daniel Kleberg stepped up to the challenge and not only won a $50 gift card to a local eatery, but also the honor of possessing the long-coveted and prestigious CS&R belt! His strategic selection of Texas Tech and UVA (the eventual winner) propelled him past the rest of the pool contenders. Congratulations Dan!

Alfredo's One Year Anniversary

This April, Alfredo Sciascia celebrated his one-year anniversary at Liberty Mutual and as head of CS&R. The entire team surprised him with festivities, and everyone sent him positive wishes for the next year. Pictured below is the CS&R group and the extra-large congratulations card that was given to Alfredo to match his larger-than-life personality. A sincere congrats, Alfredo!
