Do We Disclose Your Personal Data?

Liberty Mutual does not sell your personal data as defined by California law.

Liberty Mutual shares your personal data as disclosed above. The California privacy law defines sharing as “communicating orally, in writing, or by electronic or other means, a consumer’s personal information to a third party for cross-context behavioral advertising, whether or not for monetary or other valuable consideration.” This occurs when you visit a Liberty Mutual website. Cookies or pixels are deployed that then allow us to show you targeted advertisements when you visit other websites or social media platforms. You have the right to opt-out of this type of sharing and you may learn more about those rights; please go to lmi.co/caprivacychoices.

This type of sharing is different from disclosing personal information to other entities to perform a service related to providing insurance or processing your claim. How we disclose data to these types of entities is set forth below.

Liberty Mutual may disclose personal data with affiliated and non-affiliated third parties, including:

- Liberty Mutual affiliates;
- Service providers;
- Insurance support organizations;
- Brokers and agents;
- Public entities (e.g. regulatory, quasi-regulatory, tax or other authorities, law enforcement agencies, courts, and arbitrational bodies);
- Fraud prevention entities
- Advisors including law firms, accountants, auditors, and tax advisors;
- Insurers or re-insurers;
- A person, organization, affiliates or service providers conducting actuarial or research studies; and
- As permitted by law.

We may also disclose data with other companies that provide marketing services on our behalf or as part of a joint marketing agreement for products offered by Liberty Mutual. We will not disclose your personal data with others for their own marketing purposes.

We may also disclose data about our transactions (such as payment history) and experiences (such as claims made) with you to our affiliates.

Liberty Mutual may disclose the following categories of personal data as needed for business purposes:

Identifiers	Personal data
Internet network activity	Audio, electronic, and visual data
Professional or employment related data	Claims data

For information about how we have shared personal data in the past twelve months, please go to lmi.co/caprivacynotices and click on the link for the California Privacy Policy (Consumers).

How Do We Keep Your Personal Data Safe?

We maintain physical, electronic, and administrative safeguards created to protect your data from unauthorized access. Our employees and agents are authorized to access your data only for legitimate business purposes.

How Does My Agent Or Broker Use My Data?

Your independent agent or broker is independent from Liberty Mutual and is not subject to our privacy policy. Because your agent or broker works with you directly, he or she may have data about you that Liberty Mutual does not have. Your agent or broker may use this data differently than Liberty Mutual. Contact your agent or broker to learn more about their privacy practices.

How Long Does Liberty Mutual Retain Each Category Of Personal Data?

We retain your information in accordance with our legal obligations, our records retention policies, or as otherwise permitted by law. For example, we may have a legal obligation to retain information relating to your policies or claims with us. We will delete your data once the legal obligation expires or after the period of time specified in our records retention policies. The period of retention is subject to our review and alteration.

Children's Privacy

We do not direct our services to individuals under the age of thirteen (13) and we request that these individuals do not provide personal data through our services.

What Rights Do I Have to Learn More About My Personal Data?

You may have rights under California laws to learn more about our privacy practices.

For example, under the California Insurance Code, you may request a copy of certain information about you to review its completeness and accuracy. You must make this request in writing by contacting us as indicated below. We have 30 business days after receiving your request to send the data to you. If you believe the data we have about you is incorrect, you may notify us in writing of what you would like to correct and why. We will respond within 30 business days.

If we agree, we will change our records. We will send the change to any organization that has received the inaccurate information from us. It will also be included in any later disclosures to others.

If we disagree, we will tell you why. You can write us with a short statement explaining why you believe that the data is incorrect. This will become part of the file. We will also send it to any persons that have received the disputed information from us. It will also be included in any later disclosures to others.

You may have additional rights under other California laws. For more information about these rights, please go to lmi.co/caprivacynotices and click on the link California Privacy Policy (Consumers). If you cannot access the link, please contact us.
