Do We Disclose Your Personal Data?

Safeco does not sell your personal data.

Safeco may disclose personal data with affiliated and non-affiliated third parties, including:

- Safeco affiliates;
- Service Providers;
- Insurance support organizations;
- Brokers and agents;
- Public entities (e.g., regulatory, quasi-regulatory, tax or other authorities, law enforcement agencies, courts, arbitrational bodies, and fraud prevention agencies);
- Advisors including law firms, accountants, auditors, and tax advisors;
- Insurers or re-insurers;
- A person, organization, affiliates or service providers conducting actuarial or research studies; and
- As permitted by law.

We may also disclose data with other companies that provide marketing services on our behalf or as part of a joint marketing agreement for products offered by Safeco. We will not disclose your personal data with others for their own marketing purposes.

We may also disclose data about our transactions (such as payment history) and experiences (such as claims made) with you to our affiliates.

Safeco may disclose the following categories of personal data as needed for business purposes:

Identifiers	Personal Data
Internet or other similar network activity	Professional, employment, and education data
Claims Data

How Do We Keep your Personal Data Safe?

We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic personal information. These safeguards comply with applicable laws. Our employees and agents are authorized to access your data only for legitimate business purposes.

How does my Agent or Broker Use my Data?

Your agent or broker is not a Safeco employee and is not subject to our privacy policy. Because your agent or broker works with you directly, he or she may have data about you that Safeco does not have. Your agent or broker may use this data differently than Safeco. Contact your agent or broker to learn more about their privacy practices.

How Long Does Safeco Retain Each Category of Personal Data?

We retain your information in accordance with our legal obligations, our records retention policies, or as otherwise permitted by law. For example, we may have a legal obligation to retain information relating to your policies or claims with us. We will delete your data once the legal obligation expires or after the period of time specified in our records retention policies. The period of retention is subject to our review and alteration.

Children's Privacy

We do not direct our services to individuals under the age of thirteen (13) and we request that these individuals do not provide personal data through our services.

What Rights Do I Have to Learn More About My Personal Data?

You may have rights under your state's insurance law to learn more about our privacy practices.

For example, you may request a copy of certain data about you to review its completeness and accuracy. You must make this request in writing by contacting us as indicated below. We have thirty business days after receiving your request to send the data to you.

If you believe the data we have about you is incorrect, you may notify us in writing of what you would like to correct and why. We will respond within thirty business days.

If we agree, we will change our records. We will send the change to any organization that has received the inaccurate information from us. It will also be included in any later disclosures to others.

If we disagree, we will tell you why. You can write us with a short statement explaining why you believe that the data is incorrect. This will become part of the file. We will also send it to any persons that have received the disputed information from us. It will also be included in any later disclosures to others.
